Cultural Teachings: First Nations Protocols and Methodologies

This inspirational book shares with the reader an overview of First Nations' ceremonial customs and protocols. It provides introductory teachings to create an understanding of respectful and appropriate behavior when attending various ceremonies, feasts, songs, gatherings, healings and other cultural activities. It eloquently maintains the spiritual integrity of these First Nations practices while being informative to the reader. With the guidance of the Elders, Cultural Teachings was proudly team-authored by the staff of the Cultural Resources and Languages Department at the Saskatchewan Indian Cultural Centre.

MISSION STATEMENT

To strengthen and support the overall First Nations' education and cultural awareness of First Nations people.

PHILOSOPHY

The Saskatchewan Indian Cultural Centre has served First Nations people since 1972. It was the first First Nations controlled educational institution serving at the provincial level. The Centre strives to maintain the cultural identity of First Nations culture who inhabit what is now known as Saskatchewan: Dene, Nakawē (Saulteaux), Dakota, Nakota, Lakota, Woodlands Cree, Swampy Cree and Plains Cree.

OBJECTIVES

- To assist in developing traditional and contemporary cultural skills of First Nations people;
- To promote cross cultural awareness of First Nation peoples' historic and current role in Canadian society;
- To provide a First Nations resource base for bands and school systems to draw upon so that First Nations children may accurately inherit the values and traditions of their heritage;
- To conduct and facilitate research on First Nations' heritage and culture;
- Above all, to respect and promote the Inherent Sovereignty of First Nations and their governments, as recognized by the Royal Proclamation of 1763, confirmed by Treaties 2, 4, 5, 6, 8, 10 and Constitutional relationships;
- To advocate the preservation of First Nations' languages, cultures, traditional arts and history; and,
- To advocate First Nations' control and management of First Nation cultural resources.
